On December 10, 1998, Margaret M. Tighe was reported missing by members of her family. The circumstances of her disappearance strongly suggest that she was the victim of foul play. She was reportedly last seen by her live-in-boyfriend, Michael D. Klingsieck, on or about November 24, 1998 at the intersection of U.S. Highway 24 and McCall Road in Manhattan, Kansas. Tighe's remains have never been recovered.

A $5,000 Governor's Reward has been issued for any information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person responsible for this crime.
